

PARTICIPATE IN OUR LANGUAGE RESEARCH ONLINE RESEARCH OPPORTUNITIES

Aim: The goal of the research is to examine how monolingual and bilingual English speakers produce and comprehend some types of English sentences.

Place: Participate at home via Zoom!

Description of Research: You will complete three to four of the following tasks, depending on the study: (1) an oral language production task (which will be audio-recorded), (2) a language background questionnaire, (3) a written acceptability judgment task, and (4) a written English cloze task.

Participant Requirements:

- 1) Monolingual English speakers & 18 years or older, or
- 2) Korean-English bilingual speakers & 18 years or older, or
- 3) Spanish-English bilingual speakers & 18 years or older

Compensation: $8 for monolingual English speakers
(complete 3 tasks; approximately 20minutes)
$10 for bilingual speakers
(complete 4 tasks: approximately 30minutes)
OR Extra Credit for LING 100 or LING 225

Interested?

Fill out our contact form at https://illinoislas.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_byg2Y4xaDSTAs4Z or scan the QR code!
(Just point your phone camera!)

Questions?

Contact the investigator (Chae Eun Lee, chaeun4@illinois.edu) for more information.