Late Course Add/Section Change/Credit Change

Undergraduate students may add classes to their schedule for a particular term during the first ten instructional days of a sixteen-week course or the first five instructional days of an eight-week course. Check the campus academic calendar for specific dates: http://www.registrar.illinois.edu/registration/deadlines.html. In most instances, students will not be allowed to add classes after the deadline unless they have been attending the class from the beginning of the semester. Late course adds require the approval of the instructor and the College of Education Assistant Dean for Academic Affairs. If you request to add a course or change the section or credit past the deadline, please complete the top section of the form and obtain instructor approval. The completed form should be submitted to the Student Academic Affairs Office, 142 Education, 1310 South 6th Street.
