What I Now Know About
Who Measures What in our Neighborhood

Vocabulary
- MB: Scale measures how much you weigh.
- NB: There are different size scales.
- IN: A measuring cup.
- NO: There are many small objects.
- LS: You can measure things on a balance scale.
- IC: There is a way to measure the sea.
- TB: You have to measure things in the barn.

Helpful
- IC, CS: Measurement is important.
- SD: Measurement is so helpful.
- LS: We measure money.
- JE: CS: Measurement is so handy.
- LS: You can measure time.

Weight
- MB: Scale measures how much you weigh.
- DC: There are different size scales.
- IN: A measuring cup.
- NO: There are many small objects.
- LS: You can measure things on a balance scale.
- IC: There is a way to measure the sea.
- TB: You have to measure things in the barn.

Thermometer
- CS: You need 100 degrees for chicks to hatch.
- IN: If you do not have the right temperature, chicks will burn or freeze.
- SD: The person who invented the thermometer was Fahrenheit.
- IN: I didn't know that a low temperature could go to 100 degrees.
- LS: You can measure time (MB: 24 degrees).

Clock and time
- IN: Clock measures time.
- CS: Doris likes to keep track.
- IN: Clocks tell time by hands.
- AC: Clocks measure months and weeks.

How much?
- LS: You can measure corn.
- TB: How much you have in a box.
- MB: Measuring means how much you weigh.
- JE: You can measure how high you are.
- LS: We measure money.

Ruler, calipers and air gauge
- MB: You can measure distance.
- LS: How many there are in a row.
- NB: You can measure size.
- LS: We measure wood.

1-10 scale

Measurement
- CS: Measure big with measuring tapes.
- SP: A pencil can measure.
- NB: Paint rules.
- LS: You have to measure a paper airplane to make it work.
- LS: We measure people.
- MB: You measure our tests.
- MB: You measure table and carpet.
- LS: You can measure how long clocks are.
- MB: People measure with.
- LS: Measuring the sides of a fishbowl.
- LM: These are sizes of clocks.
- LS: Measure the wind.
- LS: A blue tool.
- LS: You need to measure pressure to make it right.
- LS: You can measure air.
- MB: We have on many things.
- MB: We are a construction worker. They measure.
- LS: A yardstick is 1 foot long.
- LS: Measuring how long corn is isn.
- MEP: Measuring how long things are, such as how wide.
- MEW: Measuring is important to build things.
- JE: You can measure water.
- LS: You have to measure seeds if you want them to grow.
- MB: How you serve water underground.
- MB: You could measure how tall flowers are with a ruler.
- MB: It helps us with buildings.